HARRY NEW'S GOOD RACE.

The attractions at Hawthorne yesterday were of an off day character, but despite the mediocre card the large crowd present witnessed a good day's sport. With the exception of the start in the third race the no recall flag system worked smoothly and is sure to be a success here. When the barrier went up in the third race it caught in Linguist's mouth, causing him to pull up and interfere with Watkins Overton and before both horses got well into their stride their chances in the race were spoiled. The accident was unavoidable and no blame could attach to the starter.

The most important race of the day was the fourth, a free handicap purse of $700 for three-year-olds at one mile. Jane Holly was thought to have the most speed of the field and was made a 9 to 5 favorite, but the best she could do was to run second to Harry New, held at 4 to 1 in the betting. The latter picked up his heavy impost of 115 pounds like a major and simply made the field appear cheap in the last eighth. Water Edge, well backed by a "wise few," showed a good turn of speed, setting a fast pace for the first six furlongs, where he began to tire and Jane Holly closely pressed by Harry New moved up on even terms with him. In the last eighth Harry New moved away with ridiculous ease, winning by three and a half lengths. The mile was turned in 1:40, quite a creditable performance for lack of action in the last sixteenth. The struggle between Jane Holly and Water Edge for second place was spirited, lasting all through the final sixteenth. The former outstayed the latter, beating him to the wire by a head. Marque finished with a rush after closing up much ground in the final quarter. Hoodwink ran a listless race, ceasing to be a serious contender after six furlongs had been run.

The first race of the day, a five furlongs dash for maiden two-year-olds, proved an easy thing for Lady Churchill. Off well she got into her stride quickly and at once assumed an easy, commanding lead, which she maintained to the wire, winning by two lengths from Naulahka, which beat Siegf four for second place. Naulahka met with early entanglement, but when she got clear sailing moved up fast and finished strongly. Siegf tired perceptibly after showing well for about three furlongs. It was strictly a three-horse race throughout. Courage showed to poor advantage and can do much better. She displayed scant speed and was never in a position to give her backers the slightest hope of success. Our Cora ran out at the head of the stretch.

The Caxton, ably ridden by Little Robbins, took the second race, a dash of one mile and seventy yards, by a neck from Tizona in a driving finish with Red Tip third one and a half lengths back. First Red Tip and then Tizona showed the way, the latter leading into the stretch, but when once straightened for home The Caxton moved up on even terms with Tizona and outstayed him to the wire. Red Tip showed sudden improvement over his race of the day previous and finished stoutly. Martin Bell was the victim of an ill-judged ride, Helgesen making too sudden use of her down the backstretch to make up ground from a poor beginning. When the pinch came she had nothing to respond with, tiring perceptibly under punishment. Reseda ran far below the good form she showed in her last two efforts.

The third race, a dash of six furlongs for two-year-olds, was robbed of much of its interest by an accident when the barrier went up. It caught in the mouth of Linguist, causing him to rear up and interfere with Watkins Overton so that by the time they got into their strides they were practically out of the contest. Adios, quick to get into motion, soon opened up a gap of three lengths on the field and appeared an easy winner when a furlong out, but along here The Picket closed up fast, causing the jockey on Adios to drive her out to the limit to

WINNERS AT BUTTE.

Nearly all the horses that have raced at the long Butte meeting will take part in the San Francisco racing next winter. DAILY RACING FORM will give its readers the Butte results from start to finish in the tabular style presented below, printing from time to time as space may allow. All copies containing these tables should be carefully saved for use later on.

win by a nose. Lady Jocelyn finished third three lengths back. The Picket would have won in another stride or two. Lady Jocelyn was well spent by the time she had run five and a half furlongs. O'er Land and Sea, as usual, displayed early speed. But for the mishap at the barrier the finish might have been close between at least four of the field. Little Robbins rode his second winner of the day when Major Dixon passed first under the wire three and one-half lengths before Charley Moore in the fifth race, a dash of one mile and twenty yards. The lad took a desperate chance with Major Dixon at the first turn, crowding through an almost impossible opening next to the inside rail, and thus obtaining the lead, otherwise he would have been compelled to pull up into a bad position. Major Dixon was much the best and the result was never in doubt. Geyser finished an indifferent third and altogether ran a dull race, showing nowhere near the speed he is known to possess. St. Simonian, well backed, ran a good race and is about due to win. Sam McKeever showed speed for six furlongs and bears watching.

Lass of Langden proved to be much the best at the weights in the last race, a dash of six furlongs. Off none too well, she soon worked her way into the lead and simply played with the field thereafter and won in a canter by a length from Aillyar, which finished three and one-half lengths before Della Ostrand for second place. The last named finished

TWENTIETH CENTURY WEIGHTS.

Below will be found the weights assigned by Secretary Nathanson to the big array of horses nominated for the Twentieth Century Handicap. This big event will be decided at Harlem Monday and is by far the most important stake to be decided in the west in the remainder of the present year. It is at a mile and three-sixteenths and is bound to be keenly contested by the pick of the western handicap division. The weights are skillfully apportioned:

stoutly and wore down Galathee in the last sixteenth for third place. Prestorius ran well up for about five furlongs and then tired rapidly.

One of the largest crowds of the week was present and witnessed a fair day's sport. The starting was very prompt in each race.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Hawthorne judges have issued this order: "On and after Monday, September 1, the suspension of jockey Buchanan is removed, but only so far as the stable of his contract employer, S. C. Hildreth, is concerned."

It is reported that M. Kahn has a contract for three years on the services of the lightweight jockey

Robbins, who has met with much success of late on the local tracks. Robbins has had fifteen mounts here this summer and has returned eight of them winners.

Details of the running of the Futurity will be called in the grandstand at Hawthorne this afternoon.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Multimillionaire J. B. Haggin, owner of Elmen dorf Stud, and the most extensive breeder of thoroughbred horses in the world, has just closed a deal for $30,000 by which he becomes the owner of the historic Kentucky Association racetrack, with it securing sixty-one and nine-tenths acres of ground in the city limits of Lexington, with all its improvements and appurtenances, the iron and stone grand stand and some twenty stables, including stalling room for 350 horses. The deal is completed, save the turning over of the money to owner Charles Green, of St. Louis, which will be done as soon as the title to the property is pronounced good. Mr. Haggin is to assume possession of the property at once, as Lyne & Ferris are, it is understood, willing to forfeit the lease which they now have on the grounds, and which will expire in March, 1904. It is understood that Mr. Haggin will use the property as a private training grounds, breaking all his yearlings there, instead of shipping them to Long Branch and other eastern racing grounds. He will remodel the grounds, fence off the inside track for use in bad weather and sod down the center field in blue grass.

It may be that Haggin intends to revive racing there, but this is doubted. The Kentucky Association track was founded in 1826. The last meeting was a private venture in the fall of 1898. Longfellow, Hindoo, Luke Blackburn, Tom Bowling and other old-time stars first appeared over the Kentucky Association course and a host of prominent Kentucky statesmen were identified with it in its early days. It is the second oldest racetrack in America.

R. H. McC. Potter has decided to give up breeding thoroughbreds, and all the stock now at his Request stud will be offered for sale by the Fasig-Tipton Company early in October. Mr. Potter has at the stud Buck Massie, Flambeau and two other sires, about forty brood mares and a number of weanlings and yearlings, all of which will go under the hammer. Mr. Potter is a business man, who took up the breeding idea as a matter of pastime, but finds that it requires more of his time than he can spare from his business and has decided, for this reason, to sell out.

Following his annual custom of several seasons past, Dr. A. W. McAlester of Columbia, Mo., will sell a number of high bred yearlings in this city, the sale taking place in the paddock at Harlem racetrack, Tuesday, September 2, at 12:50 p. m. These youngsters are by the imported stallions Wood Moss and Joe Norwood, and that hero of many fast and bitterly contested races, Guido. They will arrive here this morning and be on inspection at Stable S, Hawthorne, until the day of sale. They are the best looking band Dr. McAlester has yet sent to the sales ring and are headed by a half-brother to the sterling colt Bragg. The list to be offered is as follows:

Bay colt, by Wood Moss—Cantatrice (dam of Bragg).
Bay colt, by Wood Moss—Miss Bowling (dam of Sidbow).
Bay colt, by Wood Moss—Gold Bangle, by Aristides.
Chestnut filly, by Wood Moss—Rose Higby, by Virgil.
Bay colt, by Guido—Tipster, by Rebel.
Bay filly, by Wood Moss—Evelyn, by Claudius.
Chestnut filly, by Wood Moss—Boetitia (dam of Satan).
Bay filly, by Wood Moss—Rosiddie, by Siddartha.
Bay filly, by Wood Moss—Prue Penniston, by Siddartha.
Bay filly, by Wood Moss—Countess Irene, by Linden.
Bay colt, by Joe Norwood—Lady Nell (dam of Our Nellie).

A dispatch from London, Friday, said: "W. C. Whitney, of New York, has founded the Beresford Trust Company, for the benefit of persons connected with the turf who are in need of assistance. "Today's issue of the Racing Calendar announced the benefaction as follows:

"Mr. Whitney, of New York, out of respect for the memory of Lord William Beresford, with whom he was associated in the successes of Volodyovski and other horses, has most generously handed to trustees 400 preferred shares of the American Smelting and Refining Company, of New York, which are now yielding an income of about $2,800. Mr. Whitney's original intention was to confine the benefaction to the value of the Derby Stakes won by Volodyovski in 1901, but he has now decided to increase it to the above sum, in the hope that it may form a nucleus of a more important charity. The trustees are Lord Marcus Beresford, Mr. Leopold de Rothschild, Sir Edward Colebrooke and Sir Daniel Cooper, and the object of the trust, which is to be called the Beresford Trust, is to benefit persons connected with the turf who may have become reduced in circumstances, when their cases have been investigated and found deserving of assistance. The trustees propose to meet twice a year at Newmarket to consider applications for assistance."

Time, 121, 241, 491, 1:01. Winner—B. f. by Balgown—Yankee Heirress (trained by G. Covington). Went to post at 2:00. Off at once to a fair start. Won easily; second the same. Lady Churchill was much the best, showed much speed throughout and won as her rider pleased. Naulahka ran a good race and was easily the best of the others. Siege tired fast in the last eighth. Animula showed improvement and bears watching. Courage displayed scant speed and ran far below the form she is known to possess. It was strictly a three-horse race throughout. Scratched—33847 Aurie B., 110; 34500 Monia, 108. Lady Churchill, show, 4 to 5. Naulahka, show, 6 to 5. Siege, show, 3 to 5.

Time, 13, 251, 50, 1:151, 1:43, 1:461. Winner—Blk. g. by The Commoner—Catalpa (trained by J. Arthur). Went to post at 2:30. Off at once to a good start. Won driving; second easily. The Caxton, always well up, outstayed Tizona in the last eighth struggle, little Robbins putting up a determined ride in the closing strides. Tizona ran to his best form, had clear sailing all the way and had no mishaps. Red Tip showed a sharp reversal over his effort of the day previous and was a keen contender all the way. Matin Bell was the victim of a bad ride, Helgesen making too sudden use of her while going down the backstretch to make up ground from a poor beginning. Levathan, badly cut off at the first turn, had no chance thereafter. Reseda ran far below the good form shown in her last two races. Overweights—Levathan, 5 pounds. The Caxton, show, 4 to 5. Tizona, show, 4 to 1. Red Tip, show, 3 to 1. Matin Bell, show, 7 to 20.

The Caxton, show, 4 to 5. Tizona, show, 4 to 1. Red Tip, show, 3 to 1. Matin Bell, show, 7 to 20.

34647 THIRD RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $500; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Time, 121, 241, 491, 1:15. Winner—B. f. by St. Florian—Bonnie Bird (trained by J. Rodegop). Went to post at 3:00. Off at once to a good start. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Linguist was caught in the barrier, interfered with Watkins Overton and both had little chance when well into their strides. Adios luckily met with no interference, showed a fine turn of speed, but had to be driven out to the limit to stall off The Picket's determined bid at the end. The latter closed up ground fast in the last eighth and would probably have won in another stride. Lady Jocelyn tired rapidly when the pinch came, Linguist had no chance after getting into his stride, and the same may be said of Watkins Overton. Overweights—Watkins Overton, 1 pound; The Picket, 1½. Adios, show, 2 to 1. The Picket, show, 4 to 5. Lady Jocelyn, show, 3 to 5. Linguist, show, 2 to 5. Watkins Overton, show, 4 to 5.

Time, 124, 25, 491, 1:141, 1:401. Winner—Blk. c. by Pirate of Penzance—Barcelona (trained by S. C. Hildreth). Went to post at 3:30. Off at once to an excellent start. Won easily; second driving. Harry New is at his best just now. He was not called upon until at the last eighth post, where he came away with a rush and won as his rider pleased. Jane Holly outstayed Water Edge in the last sixteenth struggle. The latter showed sharp speed for six and a half furlongs, but was tiring fast in the closing strides. Marque ran an impressive race, making up much ground in the final quarter and finishing with great speed. Hoodwink was well beaten after running six furlongs. Scratched—(34578) Ravensbury, 101. Overweights—Jane Holly, 1 pound; The Ladaean, 4; Marque, 5. Harry New, show, 3 to 5. Jane Holly, show, out. Water Edge, show, 6 to 5. Hoodwink, show, 1 to 2.

Time, 124, 251, 491, 1:15, 1:41. Winner—Br. g. by Sir Dixon—Villette (trained by J. T. Stewart). Went to post at 4:00. Off at once to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Major Dixon was much the best, displayed much speed throughout and won as his rider pleased. Charley Moore ran to his best form and was much the best of the others. Geysar ran far below the form shown in his last race. He probably does not like the distance. St. Simonian showed improvement and bears watching from now on. Sam McKeever showed speed for six furlongs. Overweights—Vincitor, 2 pounds; St. Simonian, 2. Major Dixon, show, 1 to 3. Charley Moore, show, 11 to 10. Geysar, show, 4 to 5.

Lass of Langden was much the best at the weights and won with consummate ease. Ailyar ran his race and was easily the best of the others. Della Ostrand made up ground but tired in the last sixteenth. Galathee finished strongly. Pretorius was well beaten after five furlongs had been run. George Fabb showed early speed. Corrected weights—Galathee, 115. Lass of Langden, show, 2 to 5. Ailyar, show, 3 to 5. Della Ostrand, show, 8 to 5.

Dianora II. hugged the rail and came away in the stretch, but was tiring badly and would have been beaten in a few more strides. Whiskey finished stoutly after meeting with interference. Kingbrook was also a sufferer from interference and this considered he ran a good race. Farrie showed early speed but failed to stay when challenged. Prancer ran well in spots. Lizzie Carr would not break.

Scratched—332923 Duvall, 102.

Winner—B. c. by Exile—Apology (trained by J. J. Ogles). Went to post at 3:14. At post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Exapo was quickest in motion at the start, but trailed the leaders to the stretch turn, where he came away. Helen Oakford ran a good race and was closing up fast on the winner. Murmur did her best and had no mishaps. Gerda showed early speed, but is a non-stayer. Blithe weakened badly after running a fast half mile. Trapezist ran out on the turns.

Scratched—34398 Hallucination, 110; Mary Pine, 98.

Overweights—Blithe, 4 pounds.

Winner—Br. g. by Raquet—Faithless (trained by W. McLemore). Went to post at 3:43. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Dr. Clark raced insolence into submission for the first half, but was forced at the end to do his best to stall off Chappaqua. The latter closed up with great determination after having apparently sulked the major part of the race. Santa Teresa was outpaced in the first part of the race, but made up ground in the last half and finished strongly. Insolence tired badly after running well for three-quarters. Loka had no chance with the start.

Overweights—Santa Teresa, 2 pounds; Lady Essex, 3.

Dr. Clark, show, evens. Chappaqua, show, out. Santa Teresa, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f. by Kismet—Tulsa (trained by E. J. Ramsey). Went to post at 4:13. At post 6 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Velma Clark was tipped for the first five furlongs, but caught Laura F. M. in the stretch run and was drawing away at the end. Laura F. M. set a fast pace for the first five furlongs, but was ridden with poor judgment and tired at the end from too much use. Sardine closed up strongly after appearing hopelessly beaten on the backstretch. Himtine sulked in the last quarter. Twas would not break.

Winner—Br. c. by Hermene—Complete (trained by H. Derham). Went to post at 4:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Huzzah at the weights was best. He trailed the pacemakers until at the last quarter and when called on came away with apparent ease. Miss Soak, looking high in flesh, ran a good race and apparently only weakened through lack of condition. Concertina showed improvement. Easy Street can be classed with the inconsistent performers. His race today was a bad one and should not be considered in future calculations. Handcuff tired. He is not at his best at present. The winner, entered to be sold for $300, was bid up $400 over his entered price and retained.

Huzzah, show, 3 to 5. Miss Soak, show, evens. Concertina, show, 6 to 5. Easy Street, show, out. Handcuff, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. g. by Kingston—Carmenita (trained by P. M. Civill). Went to post at 5:15. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Jake Weber was in a soft spot and ran unextended all the way. J. J. T. showed surprising gameness by standing a hard last quarter drive. Competitor began slowly, but made up ground rapidly. All Saints has apparently had too much of it lately. Ethel Davis was running strongly at the finish and is worth noting for early action.

Scratched—34446 Scrtie, 105; 34131 Easter Boy, 93.

Jake Weber, show, out. J. J. T., show, 3 to 1. Competitor, show, 6 to 5. All Saints, show, 4 to 5.

PROMISING MAIDENS.

Now running on the eastern tracks are a number of highly tried two-year-olds that as yet have failed to score brackets, but the majority of which are almost certain to win during the progress of the campaign yet to come over the New York tracks. Concerning this division a letter from Saratoga to Morning Telegraph of last Monday said:

"While every day or two the collection of maiden two-year-olds here is lessened by graduates from the ranks, the division is such a large one that no appreciable effect is noticeable. Races for youngsters fill more largely than any class of events programmed.

"The Belmont Stable's quintette of maiden youngsters that have started here this week have drawn out a good deal of attention from racegoers by reason of their class. But Nine Spot, Lord of the Vale, Sailmaker and Fire Eater are still maidens, although the former promising daughter of Hastings has two seconds to her credit. Lord of the Vale, another big, slashing Hastings youngster, finished such a strong third at his debut last Monday that he is certain to be held in great respect when he starts again.

"Lord of the Vale had twelve others behind him in this race, including winners like Astarita, Wild Thyme, Yardarm, Dr. Saylor, Athelroy, Scoffer and Red Knight, to most of which he was conceding weight. His unlucky stable companion, Forward, ran unplaced in this race. Sailmaker and Fire Eater were heavily played here yesterday but ran unplaced.

"The Whitney filly Alhambra, by Star Ruby out of that good mare Connemara, made her first appearance here last week. The filly had not started since Morris Park and showed a lot of speed in her race, and although she did not land in the money will do to watch. Sir Preston also ran well in this race, as did Sweet Alice, Epidemic, Farcraft and Arcade.

"The California colt Diamante was also beaten in the same race, after being strongly backed on the strength of western form and work here. He showed some speed, but was not persevered with. Shaw easing him up entirely too far from home to suit his backers. Diamante is a fine looker.

"Mesmerist's full brother, Mesmer, started on Tuesday, but did not show the form looked for from his work, relationship and classy appearance, as he ran a picturesque last all the way. Bridesmaid II., another maiden in this race will bear watching, as she showed well for a 100 to 1 shot, as was her rating. Savable and Olefant, the western cracks, both ran far below expectations in this race, but the heavy track was against them.

"Two highly tried maidens, Hymettus and Embarassment, ran on the same day, and will do to keep in mind. Grantsdale, of the Wilson lot, is one of the most promising maidens here. He ran bang up with the stake colts in the Grand Union Stakes.

"Bounding Beauty, of the Pepper Stable, and Merry Acrobat, from P. J. Dwyer's barn, also showed speed in the Grand Union Stakes. Both of these maidens can win when properly placed. Claude, with which a killing was missed a couple of weeks ago by a disqualification for jostling, ran very forwardly again on Wednesday last, finishing a strong fourth in a big field. This colt was going so strong at the end that at six furlongs he will be worth considering.

"Christine A. closed a big gap in this race, while Turnpike, after a long rest, failed to finish in the money. Saturday, however, the Wilson colt went closer, landing third in a big field. Dr. Hagyard, highly tried this spring, ran unplaced in this race.

"Harrison, a highly tried youngster from M. T. Danaher's stable, made an impressive debut on Thursday, after being backed from 50 to 1 down to 8 to 1. He got away slowly, but ran into third place at the end, after closing a big gap. Anna Daly, Ithan and Hilarity also ran forwardly in this race, showing improvement.

"The colt Counterpoise, by Bathampton, ran impressively on Friday, as did Hymettus, the maiden alluded to above as starting early in the week. Fullback, Showman and Subdue also showed speed in this race. Medal, the Whitney youngster, was again backed on Friday, but began so slowly as to fail to land in the money.

"Ayrshire Lad ran so well against John A. Scott, Shorthose and Skilful that this Canadian owned colt will do to watch, while Americano, in the same race ran as if a bit short. Leipsic, which had worked very fast for this race, got away poorly. Boutonniere, Virgin Soil and other promising maidens are worth watching."
